I am pleased to report that the Planning Department and Information Technology Department have created a new feature on the City website where contact information for Homeowners Associations in the City is displayed on a map of the City. To access the map from the main page, go to My Community—Maps and GIS. The link to the page is: <https://gis-cityofbowie.hub.arcgis.com/> Please keep in mind that the contact information is only as good as what is given to us by the HOAs.
